What is Included in the Cost?

Travel: In country round trip flight to & from Laoag, lodging, if needed, in Manila; bus travel and sight-seeing tours.

Projects: Two-week trips include working with visiting doctors & dentists, seeing 100-150 patients in free rural clinics in medically deprived villages. In construction, the building of churches in remote villages.

For the longer trips participants will be able to work in an active medical clinic with 25 staff seeing over 1200 patients per month.

Food: Everyday three delicious vegetarian meals made with in season fruits & vegetables as only Filipino cooks can create.

Lodging: Clean air-conditioned rooms shared by others in the party. All bedding furnished. Full standard bathroom facilities. Daily laundry service provided.

Worships: Daily worships with the staff at Pagudpud Adventist Wellness Center. A time to sing, pray & connect together with God.

Beaches: Frequent opportunity to relax at the beach and enjoy some sun and swimming. Also several sight-seeing trips designed for your enjoyment and delight in the natural beauty of the Northern Philippines.

Pastor Jay Coon: 30 years in Pastoral ministry with 19 of those years at Auburn Adventist Academy. He has been overseeing medical mission Trips since 2002 bringing over 700 students thus far. Pastor Jay is excited to give, with his IHSA Host, April Faylogna, a spiritually growing active Medical mission trip.
